

Theresa Ransone, Bank of Lancaster's Assistant Vice President and Golden Advantage Club Director and Lancaster County Sheriff Ronnie Crockett are pictured with 2008 Golden Santa collections.

(Left to right): Helen Wilkins, Director of Social Services in Westmoreland County and Judy Sydnor, Client Services Manager of Bank of Lancaster's Montross Office are pictured with 2008 Golden Santa collections.

BANK OF LANCASTER'S GOLDEN SANTA COLLECTION TRADITION CONTINUES

Bank of Lancaster's Golden Advantage Club is once again sponsoring a holiday collection of non-perishable food, new toys and books throughout the Northern Neck. Each of the Bank's nine offices have depositories for these items which will be distributed with the help of Lancaster County's Deputy Santa, Interfaith Service Council, Church Resource Services, The Salvation Army of Richmond County and the Departments of Social Services in Northumberland and Westmoreland Counties.

Theresa Ransone, Assistant Vice President and Director of the Golden Advantage Club states: "This is Golden Santa's 17th year and we are truly excited and grateful to all of our customers and friends who make this event possible. It is our mission to reach out to the communities we serve and help all of our friends and neighbors have the blessing of a happy holiday season. All of us at Bank of Lancaster thank you in advance for helping us with this program"

Collections of food, toys and books will continue through Thursday, December 10, 200 at all Bank of Lancaster offices in Kilmarnock, White Stone, Burgess, Callao, Heathsville, Warsaw, Montross, Colonial Beach, and at Bay Trust Company in Kilmarnock.