

New Golden Advantage Advisory Board Members (L to R): Theresa Ransone, Bank of Lancaster's Assistant Vice President and Golden Advantage Club Director; new Advisory Board members Ray Lucas and Cheryl Nunnally; and Bank President & CEO Austin Roberts III.

BANK OF LANCASTER WELCOMES ITS NEW GOLDEN ADVANTAGE ADVISORY BOARD MEMBERS

Bank of Lancaster values all of its Community Reinvestment Advisory Boards as important community outreach programs. Each Board member brings a unique perspective of community and business experience, and the valuable input of these Board members is revered as Bank of Lancaster continues to be a leader of vision in serving its communities.

Bank of Lancaster would like to welcome to its Golden Advantage Community Reinvestment Advisory Board new members Ray Lucas, Cheryl Nunnally and Joanne Walters. Each member serves a three-year term and Lucas, Nunnally and Walters join those members already serving: Candace Carden, Dr. Henry Lane Hull, Annette Jewell, Emily Lawson, Patty Long, and Charles Rice.

Joanne W. Walters is the owner and operator of The Computer Coach, which provides computer training and technical support. Located in Heathsville, The Computer Coach is one of the Merchant Partners for the Golden Advantage Program. She is a graduate of Longwood College, now known as Longwood University; and she did her graduate studies at the University of Maryland, E-Commerce. Walters resides in Heathsville.

Ray Lucas was the manager of Levi Strauss & Company, which was located in Warsaw. He worked for Levi Strauss for 27 years in Arkansas, California, and then Virginia and retired in 1997. His responsibilities with Levi Strauss over his career included Human Resources, managing over 300 employees, and maintaining a safe and healthy work environment while meeting employee training, budget and production objectives. He received his BS degree in Business Administration from Arkansas A & M College. Since becoming a part of the Warsaw community, he has been President of the Warsaw Chamber of Commerce for 4 years, has served on the Rappahannock Community College Advisory Board and the College's Library Board of Directors. He has also served on the Boards of the Richmond County Museum, the Richmond/Westmoreland Habitat for Humanity, and Bay Agency and is a member of the Richmond County Ruritan Club. Lucas resides in Warsaw.

Cheryl Nunnally has been with Nunnally's Floors & Decorating, located in Warsaw, for 32 years. Her responsibilities relate to the operational side of this retail business, which specializes in floor coverings, decorating and design. Nunnally has been a resident of Warsaw for the past 34 years. Active in her community, she is a member of St. John's Episcopal Church, is a Girl Scout leader, and has been involved with the Rappahannock High School Booster Club and is a past treasurer of the Richmond County Chamber of Commerce.

On behalf of Bank of Lancaster, Roberts also extended his sincere gratitude to Jim Charbeneau, Rev. Michael Malone and Middy Morris, who recently completed their term on the Golden Advantage Advisory Board. The retiring members were presented with a small gift in recognition of their years of service. "We have been most fortunate," Roberts stated, "to have community leaders such as Jim, Michael and Middy to serve on our advisory board, and we are appreciative of both the time and input they have given us. Our Advisory Board members are our eyes and ears in our communities, and we look to them to help us determine how we can better serve our friends and neighbors. We are a better financial institution because of their dedication to service and community."

Retiring Golden Advantage Advisory Board Members Photo Caption: (L to R) Theresa Ransone, Bank of Lancaster's Assistant Vice President and Golden Advantage Club Director; retiring members Jim Charbeneau and Middy Morris, and Bank President & CEO Austin Roberts III.